

Mike's Nut Roast

Extended Code Unit 11 /ie/

Mike and his family are having a big holiday meal together. Mike's sister cannot eat meat, so he will make a nut roast for her. A nut roast is like a meat loaf, but made of nuts! Mike will first chop up a big bag of mixed nuts, such as pecans, chestnuts, Brazil nuts and hazelnuts. He cuts up some wild mushrooms, a red pepper and a big carrot into little chunks. Mike adds herbs and stock to the mix. He spreads the mix in a roasting tray.

When it has finished baking, he gets the tray out and serves a slice on a plate with a smile. He sprinkles chives on top. His sister has a bite and says it's the best nut roast she has ever had. Uncle Brian even tries a bit and says it's so yummy he might make it at home.

Students may need help with the following words: like, hazelnuts, mushrooms, little, serves, slice, -ed endings.
